

Mentoring girls with promise and purpose...

Issue No. 1 | May 2022

Felicia's Promise works to provide technical and non-technical resources and training to prepare young women for STEAM career paths with communication, entrepreneurship, leadership, and other necessary skills that the organization deems necessary to uphold its mission.

Where we've been

In the beginning God gave Felicia the vision to mentor girls with intention, promise and purpose. Her son Justin interpreted her vision and created this logo.

Felicia's Promise started as and still is a ministry at Bethany Baptist Church of Brooklyn.

What's New This Month...

Where we are now

Felicia's Promise currently has mentees in New York, Virginia, Jamaica, W.I., and Liberia, West Africa. We are continuing to offer in-person & virtual bi-weekly themed workshops, academic tutoring, and extracurricular resources. Workshops of the past have included financial literacy, civic engagement, coding, public speaking, women's health, and art enrichment, to name a few.

Where we're headed

This Summer, we are introducing a coding workshop and expanding our STEAM program to include music. We are beyond excited to help our mentees understand how STEAM learning is a part of our everyday lives!

Mentee Spotlight

Congratulations are in order!

This month we're celebrating our mentee Destiny's graduation from High school and her commitment to Medgar Evers College. Destiny's dynamic energy is contagious. It has been a joy to watch her grow and mature in each and every one of our mentoring sessions. Her creative spirit shines brightly whether she is writing poetry or creating TikTok videos.

The Promise Poem

Board Member, Head of Program Development.

The Promise

Today, I am grateful.
I am grateful for the child I was, the young lady I am,
and the powerful woman I will become.
I am strong;
I am intelligent;
I am beautiful inside and out.
I am (Your Name)
Today, I make a promise.
I promise to live with integrity;
I promise to live with compassion;
I promise to stand up to fear.
I promise to control my response when I cannot control what happens.
I promise to make good decisions for my life.
I promise to be, the one true ME!
